Ohio Dance Masters

Ohio Dance Masters proudly presents to its' members and guests today's outstanding faculty.

Kiesha Lalama

Kiesha has created more than 50 works for stage, film and television. Kiesha choreographed feature films, “The Perks of Being a Wallflower,” “Sorority Row.” The hit television documentary series “Broadway or Bust” (PBS), and critically acclaimed television series “Outsiders” (WGN). Theatrical credits include National High School Musical Theater Awards (Broadway), All Shook Up (North Shore Music Theatre), Jesus Christ Superstar (Kansas City Starlight Theatre) and many others. Lalama has created two full-length contemporary dance theater productions. The Bench received rave reviews and was named by the Pittsburgh Post Gazette’s “Best of Dance” top ten list in both 2009 and 2010. The Bench is currently under development with DCDC and Titus Theatrical with a world premiere set for Fall 2018. As an educator, Kiesha serves as an Associate Professor in the Point Park University Dance Department and as the Education Director for the Pittsburg CLO. Kiesha Lalama graduated with an MFA in Interdisciplinary Arts from Goddard College and has her BA in Dance from Point Park University. Kiesha is a proud member of SDC.

Dawnell Dryja Black

Dawnell Dryja is originally from Canton, Michigan where she trained under her mother, Dawn Greene and Dance Masters of America Past President, Joanne Zavisa and is proud to say she grew up in the DMA family. Ms. Dryja has been dancing professionally for over twenty years. She has danced for Cincinnati Ballet, Tulsa Ballet, Dayton Ballet, Metropolitan Ballet Theatre of Detroit and currently for Grand Rapids Ballet. Ms. Dryja has danced a broad spectrum of roles from the classics of Odette/Odile in Swan Lake, Giselle in Giselle, Swanhilda in Coppelia to contemporary works such as Ulysses Doves’ Red Angels, Stanton Welch’s Fingerprints and Lila York’s Rapture and Celts. She holds her Advanced Certificate in the Cecchetti method with high honors. Ms. Dryja is the owner and Artistic Director of Academy of Dance Arts in Comstock Park, Michigan and enjoys choreographing, teaching and coaching students. She has been on staff at the Grand Rapids Ballet School for the past fifteen years and teaches intermediate through advanced ballet as well as pointe class, variations and pas de deux class. Ms. Dryja has had the opportunity to work with esteemed choreographers and teachers from around the world such as Fredrick Franklin, Suzanne Farrell, Raymond Lukens to name a few. Most recently, Ms. Dryja has taken the role as Artistic Coordinator at Grand Rapids Ballet.

Diane Gudat

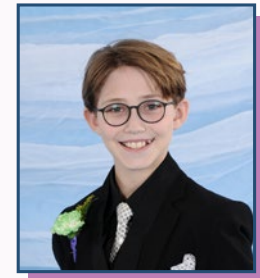

Diane Gudat is a freelance writer, teacher and choreographer from Indianapolis, IN. She now teaches at the studio she owned, The Dance Company, for more than 28 years and has been a dance educator for more than 45 years. She is the author of 7 dance books specifically designed for the dance teacher. Some of the books are “The Time Step Dictionary, Volume One and Two Acrobatics for the Dance Studio. She also has produced the “Flash Tap” production. She contributes to Dance Studio Life magazine. Diane has taught for Teachers Training programs all over the US, Canada and South Africa. She has served as a faculty member at regional and national conventions and workshops, as well as an adjudicator and special awards judge. Diane’s commitment to continuing education has inspired her to gather, organize and share information for the next generation of Dance Educators.
