ARTICLE I: NAME

This organization shall be known as Ohio Dance Masters (here referred to “ODM”), and is affiliated as Chapter #16 with Dance Masters of America, Inc. (here referred to (“ODM”), a non-profit educational organization incorporated in the state of Maryland.

ARTICLE II: OBJECT AND MISSION

Section 1: Object

The object of this organization shall be to represent and promote the common business interests, and to improve the business conditions, of dance educators, including:

1. Enabling danceeducators’ and their students to meet for cooperative-operative and collective studies of their profession.
2. Advancing the art of dance and elevate its teachings.
3. Striving for fraternal cooperative-operation.
4. Aiding young dancers and dance teachers by awarding them educational dance scholarships to accredited colleges, private dance schools, and/or ODM educational workshops and conventions.

Section 2: Mission

The Ohio Dance Masters is a professional organization of artists, certified educators and academically degreed members, Professional Members, committed to the elevation of the art of dance and to provide innovative artistic experiences for the advancement of dance worldwide.

ARTICLE III: CODE OF ETHICS

This Code of Ethics shall apply to all members of Ohio Dance Masters and the term “teacher” and/or “educator” as used in this code includes all members of ODM. This code seeks to set standards for members and to provide guidelines for the development of desirable conduct which will promote the dignity, integrity and public and professional image of the dance profession, ODM and its members. The creation and maintenance of a professional image imposes on the member teacher several professional and ethical responsibilities.

- A. A member teacher’s first professional responsibility is to enhance the quality of dance education provided to the students in his/her charge. In furtherance thereof, the educator shall strive to improve his/her techniques for teaching all types of dance, especially as modified or revised in accordance with the progress of dance education by ODM. Teachers shall make a constant and consistent effort to improve professionally through continual study, knowing that “Dance is a Living Art”.
- B. The member teacher shares a collective responsibility to work for the good of ODM, to uphold its educational goals and standards, and to abide by and uphold its Articles of Incorporation, Code of Regulations, Code of Ethics, Standing Rules and other policies.
- C. ODM recognizes that a higher standard of personal behavior is expected of its members therefore:
 1. A member shall not make derogatory comments about or against others in the dance profession;
 2. A member shall not knowingly solicit another teacher’s students;
 3. A member or group of members shall not make unauthorized representations to other individuals or organizations on behalf of ODM.
- D. It is the member teacher’s responsibility to maintain relationships with students, assistants and employees on a professional basis. ODM recognizes the trust placed in as well as the unique power of the student-teacher relationship. The teacher-student relationship also shall include the member teacher’s assistants and employees. The teacher-student relationship involves a power of imbalance; therefore, the teacher shall not engage in harassment, abusive words or actions.
- E. All forms of sexual behavior or harassment with students are unethical, even when students invite or consent to such behavior involvement. Sexual behavior is defined as, but not limited to, all forms of overt and covert seduction speech, gestures, and behavior, such as physical contact of a sexual nature. Harassment is defined, but not limited to comments, gestures or physical contacts of a sexual nature.

- F. The students, assistants and employees perceive the member teacher as an example of integrity. The personal behavior of a teacher shall be legal, ethical and moral. Appropriate assistance shall be sought by the member teacher for personal problems and conflicts which may affect the teacher's public and professional image. The member teacher's behavior shall always reflect that the member teacher is aware that he/she is considered an example to students, assistants and employees.
- G. The member teacher and his or her agents shall be willing to work with his/her colleagues, regardless of age, sex nationality, ethnic origin, status, religion or political affiliation, qualification or personal differences. The member teacher and his or her agents shall not knowingly solicit another teacher's students.
- H. Any advertising, verbal or written, including but not limited to announcements, public statements and promotional activities, shall not misrepresent professional qualifications, or contain any false, fraudulent, misleading, deceptive or unfair statements.
- I. Fees and financial arrangements should always be disclosed in writing without hesitation or equivocation before the commencement of dance instruction. All fees charged shall be of a standard, which upholds the dignity of the dance profession. All fiscal affairs shall be conducted with due regards to recognized business and accounting procedures.
- J. No unethical communications through social media.

ARTICLE XVIII: DISSOLUTION

The Association shall use its funds only to accomplish the objectives and purposes specified in these Code of Regulations, and no part of said funds shall inure, or be distributed to the members of the Association. On dissolution of the Association, any funds remaining shall be distributed to one or more non-profit organizations to be selected by the Executive Board, who will be guided by the rules of 501 c (6) of the Internal Revenue Service Code and any of its amendments.

ARTICLE XIV: LIMITATION OF LIABILITY IN DAMAGES AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1 – Limitation on Liability in Damages of a Member of the Executive Board. Other than in connection with an action or suit in which the only liability asserted against a member of the Executive Board is for voting for or assenting to a statutorily proscribed assets distribution or loan (a “Statutorily Proscribed Act”), a member of the Executive Board shall be liable in damages for any action he or she takes or fails to take as a member of the Executive Board only if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his or her action or failure to act involved an act or omission either undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to ODM or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of ODM.

Section 2 – Third Party Action Indemnification. ODM shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding, including all appeals (other than an action, suit, or proceeding by or in the right of ODM), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a member of the Executive Board or officer of ODM, or is or was serving at the request of ODM as a trustee, director, or officer or another domestic or foreign not for profit. corporation or corporation for profit, or a partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, decrees, fines, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding, unless it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his or her action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to ODM or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of ODM and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful; the termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, constitute such proof.

Section 3 – Derivative Action Indemnification. Other than in connection with an action or suit in which the liability of a member of the Executive Board for voting or assenting to a Statutorily Proscribed Act is the only liability asserted, ODM shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit, including all appeals, by or in the right of ODM to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a member of the Executive Board or officer of ODM or is or was serving at the request of ODM as a trustee, director, or officer of another domestic or foreign not for profit corporation or corporation for profit, or a partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit unless it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his or her action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to ODM or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of ODM, except that ODM shall indemnify him or her to the extent the court in which the action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the proof, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, he or she is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper.

Section 4 – Determinations of Indemnification Rights. Any indemnification under Sections 2 or 3 of this Article XV (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by ODM only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the member of the Executive Board or officer is proper in the circumstances. The determination shall be made (a) by a majority vote of those members of the Executive Board who in number constitute a quorum of the Executive Board and who also were not and are not parties to or threatened with any such action, suit, or proceeding or (b), if such a quorum is not obtainable (or even if obtainable) a majority of disinterested members of the Executive Board so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel compensated by ODM, or (c) by the court in which the action, suit, or proceeding was brought.

Section 5 – Advances of Expenses. Unless the action, suit, or proceeding is one in which the liability of a member of the Executive Board for voting for or assenting to a Statutorily Proscribed Act is the only liability asserted, expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by the member of the Executive Board or officer of ODM in defending any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections 2 or 3 of this Article XV shall be paid by ODM, as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the member of the Executive Board or officer in which he or she agrees both (a) to repay the amount if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his or her action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to ODM or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of ODM and (b) to cooperate with ODM concerning the action, suit, or proceeding.

Section 6 – Purchase of Insurance. ODM may purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection, including, but not limited to, trust funds, letters of credit, and self-insurance, for or on behalf of any person who is or was a member of the Executive Board, officer, employee, agent, or volunteer of ODM, or is or was serving at the request of ODM as a trustee, director, officer, employee, agent, volunteer of another domestic or foreign not for profit corporation or corporation for profit, or a partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him or her or incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not ODM would have the power to indemnify him or her against liability under the provisions of this Article XV or of the Ohio not for profit Corporation Law. Insurance may be purchased from or maintained with a person in whom ODM has a financial interest.

Section 7 – Heirs; Non-Exclusivity. The limitation of liability in damages and the indemnification provided by this Article XV shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a member of the Executive Board or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person and shall not be deemed exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights granted to a person seeking indemnification as a matter of law or under the Articles of Incorporation, this Code of Regulations, any agreement, or any insurance purchased by ODM, or pursuant to any vote of the members or disinterested members of the Executive Board, or by reason of any action by the members of the Executive Board to take into account amendments to the Ohio not for profit Corporation Law that expand the authority of ODM to indemnify a member of the Executive Board or officer of ODM, or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding an office or position.

Section 8 – No Mandatory Indemnification of Volunteers. Section 1702.12(E)(5) of the Ohio not for profit Corporation Law shall not apply to ODM to the extent that it requires the indemnification of volunteers (as that term is defined in Section 1702.1 of the Ohio not for profit Corporation Law) other than members of the Executive Board or officers of ODM or trustees, directors, or officers of another domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation or corporation for profit, or partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust, or other enterprise serving at the request of ODM.

ARTICLE XIX: AMENDMENTS

Section 1 – Code of Regulations

- A. This Code of Regulations may be amended at any regular meeting of the Grand Body by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of members present and voting, providing notice has been given at the previous meeting or by mail or EMAIL at least then (10) days prior to the meeting.

Section 2 – Standing Rules

- A. Standing Rules may be amended at any scheduled meeting of the ODM provided the rules have been:
 1. approved by the Executive Board, and
 2. approved by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Grand Body members present and voting.
